

University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture Cooperative Extension Service 4-H Constitution

Preamble

The University of Arkansas 4-H program creates supportive environments utilizing learn-by-doing educational experiences for culturally diverse youth and adults to reach their fullest potential. In support of this mission, the University of Arkansas 4-H develops programs that:

- Are responsive to Arkansas youth and families;
- Are inclusive and diverse;
- Are innovative and adaptable;
- Are accountable for their actions and resources;
- Are collaborative and team focused;
- Are honest, fair and equitable;
- Are respectful for the health and well-being of people, animals and the environment;
- Foster leadership and volunteerism in youth and adults;
- Develop life skills that benefit youth throughout life; and
- Use research-based knowledge developed from the Land Grant University System.

Through the 4-H organization, 4-H adult volunteers, 4-H youth members and University of Arkansas 4-H staff work together to extend 4-H to the youth of Arkansas to set and achieve the goals of the state 4-H program. At the state level, the University of Arkansas 4-H staff and the Arkansas 4-H state program leader have final authority to ensure that University of Arkansas policy and 4-H core values are adhered to.
