3. Be a 4-H member who has been active and has achieved at the highest level in the club, county, and state. National achievements are not a requirement but will be considered.
4. Be a 4-H member who has used personal 4-H accomplishments to help others achieve.
5. Be a 4-H member who has provided outstanding leadership to 4-H and made significant contribution to the 4-H program at the club, county, and state level.
6. Be a 4-H member who has shown a strong commitment to 4-H.
