To recognize 4-H members who have excelled in clothing projects and exhibit skills in the following:

- * Application of knowledge of fibers and fabrics to wardrobe selection.
- * Clothing construction or modification.
- * Fashion interpretation and understanding of style.
- * Good grooming and poise in front of others.
- * Modeling and presentation of themselves and their garments.

ELIGIBILITY

District 4-H O-Rama: Up to two junior (1 per category) and two senior (1 per category) 4-H members from each county may enter the Fashion Revue-Constructed/Modified Garment activity at the District 4-H O-Rama.

Arkansas 4-H O-Rama: The top seven seniors in both categories at each District 4-H O-Rama will be eligible to enter the state activity. Once a contestant has won first place at State O-Rama in one division, he/she is no longer eligible to compete in that division.

ACTIVITY

Contestants will meet for a personal interview with judges and informally model their garment. During the interview, the contestants will be judged on: their oral presentation skills, the content of their oral presentation, the appearance of outfit/garment, and two questions from the judges.

During the interview, contestants will have the opportunity to provide an oral presentation in front of the judges. Presentation should be in the following format:

1. Name
2. One-two minute or less presentation about their 4-H Clothing and Textiles project. This oral presentation can include information about the garment being modeled, learning experiences or activities in the clothing and textiles project, future project/personal plans, and any other information related to their 4-H career.

Following the oral presentation the judges will have the opportunity to ask questions. The judges are given a pre-determined set of questions. Questions asked will relate to the oral presentation, 4-H clothing and textiles project experiences, and clothing and textiles subject matter.

CATEGORIES

The Fashion Revue – Constructed has 2 categories, Constructed and Modified. Each county may enter 1 junior and 1 senior in each category.

Constructed:

Competition garments must be a complete ensemble and must include a top and bottom. (Exception: Full-length coats entered in the construction division may be worn over ready-to-wear garments.) Ready-made shirts, blouses, body suits, sweaters, etc., are not allowed in the Constructed Garment division of the activity except when worn under a full-length coat (as noted above). Ensembles must fit into one of the categories as outlined above.

Accessories such as ties, belts, scarves, shoes, etc., should be used appropriately to enhance the garment and do not have to be home-sewn. No additional garments may be carried with the exception of props (i.e., tennis racket, golf club, corsage, and teddy bear).

Modified:

The member designs and sews a wearable garment from previously used materials. These material may be manufactured ready-made garments. This category focuses on creativity as well as sewing skills. The new garment must show at least 30% change in construction/design.

Note: Notes or note cards are not permitted in the Constructed garment division of the activity. If there's a special need, please contact the 4-H Events Coordinator.

Judging:

Participants will be scored on (1) Oral presentation skills (20%), (2) Content of oral presentation, description of garment and project experience (20%), (3) Appearance of outfit/garment, fit, appropriateness and accessories (20%), (4) Response to judge questions (20%), (5) Modeling and appearance of garment (20%).

AWARDS

First place winners in each category will receive trophies. First through third place winners in each category will receive ribbons.

Note: Participation in the Fashion Revue at County, District and State O-Ramas may be reported in 4-H Record Book competition for awards in Clothing and/or Fashion Revue.
